Imperial German Consul at Hongkong, notified in the Gazette: COULD the Water Authority explain wh the water was jurned off in Garden Road.

Kowloon, this morning? Kowloonites do wash when it rains, whatever the W. A. may think. THE lightning was particularly vivid last night and some of the thunder claps very loud, though the thunderstorm was not of long duration. So far this year we have had very little thunder and lightning. THE matshed on the Ferry Wharf at the end of Ice House Street seems to have suffered to some extent during yesterday's blow and will require a few repairs before it will, be once more sun and rainproof.

MANTUA, after nearly twenty centuries, has remembered that it is the birthplace of Virgil, and has set to work to crect a monument to its great poet. The sum of twenty thousand dollars has been raised and artists are called on to send in plans in competition.

LAST night's rain will have done an immense amount of good, but it is a pity that there was not more of it. As we have stated before, we are a long way behind the average rainfall, and as the dry season is coming on we can only look forward to making up our average by few typhoons coming near enough to the Colony to give us a good downpour now and again.

In the House of Lords, on July 1st, it was announced by Lord Selborne in reply to Lord Spencer that the Atlantic Transport Company has presented to the Government the hospital ship Maine, with her fittings. The present was accompanied by a hope that it might tend to increase the friendly feelings existing between the United States and this country, and these good wishes were reciprocated by Lords Selborne and Spencer.

By the courtesy of the Colonel and Officers of the Regiment, the Band of the Third Madras Light Infantry will play at the end of Robinson Road, Kowloon, from six to eight o'clock this evening and, if possible, every Monday evening. We can assure the Officers of the Third Madrassees that this will be very much appreciated by the Kowloon folk. Life is all too deadly dull throughout the year here for a chance of hearing such a good band as the one in question to be missed.

THE Rev. William Holman, a retired chaplain of the Royal Navy, whose will has just been proved, left therein instructions that his funeral should be "plain and private as consistent with decency: no gin-drinking mutes or laudatory inscription on tomb-stone." These nautical people have such a blunt way of speaking their minds. The other day it was the legal profession who were so severely condemned by Admiral Commercil in his will. German Mail.

YESTERDAY at I p.m. was reported the death of Bertha Brennaman alias Lester Mansfield, occurring at No. 44 Lyndherst Terrace, from, presumably, an overdose of morphia.

An extraordinary outbreak of crime, which has taken the form of ingenious little "infernal machines," or explosive packets sent through the post, was reported in St. Petersburg on the 30th June, from the towns of Nijni-Faginlsk and Konchava, in the government of Perm. To the Chief of Police was sent a dainty little cigarette case. As he endeavoured to open it an explosion occurred, which fatally injured the officer. Several other persons having been similarly injured, the recipients grew cautious, and soon the police had a little stock on their hands. When taken to pieces these charming objects, some of which were in the form of watches, were found to be charged with nitroglycerine.

costing two thousand guineas is, indeed, a curiosity. Such an instrument has just been made by Messrs. Adams and Company, of 26, Charing Cross-road, for the Sultan of Morocco. This particular camera is quarter-plate; a half-plate camera has also; been built by the firm for the same potentate at a cost of £900. It took ten men four months to make these wonderful appliances. In the more expensive but smaller camera gold has been used wherever possible, even to the screws. In the half-plate camera silver has been employed with equal lavishness. It is a little comforting for ordinary mortals to reflect that these marvellously finished cameras probably give no better practical results than the best commercial model.

A [HOME paper says a photographic camera

On Wednesday morning (says the Times of July 5th, 1801) two Privates of the York Hussars were shot, on Bincomb Down, near Weymouth, pursuant to the sentence of a Court-martial, for desertion, and cutting a boat out of the harbour, with intent to go to France, but by mistake they landed at Guernsey, and were secured. All the regiments, both in camp and barracks, were drawn up, namely the Scotch Greys, the Rific Corps, the Stafford, Berks, and North DevoniMilitia. They came on the ground in a mourning ceach, attended by two Priests. After marching along the front of the line they returned to the centre, where they spent about twenty minutes in prayer, and were shot by a guard of twenty-four men. They dropped instantly, and expired without a grean." . 🛒

WE would strongly recommend everybody who wants to know the truth about the South African refugee camps to read Miss Stuart's letter in the Times of the 2nd uit., says the Pall Mall Gazette. This lady, who is a South African born and bred, and a delegate of the Guild of Loyal Women, is highly amused at Miss Hobhouse's horrorat conditions of existence which South Africans regard as a matter of course. "Intense heat, crowded tents, and scarcity of milk, snakes, &c., are everyday occurrences. We South Africans wonder to hear so much made of things which we have always had to put up with." The net conclusion at which the South African lady arrives is that the English lady must be "completely ignorant of the ordinary country Boer habits," and that, far from constituting a damaging indictment against the British authorities, Miss Hobhouse's report "is unintentionally a marvellous test mony to the exceeding care our military have expended upon the women and children of the very men who are shooting our brave soldiers down." Our pro-Boers did the cause of their Dutch friends a bad turn when they hit upon the idea of exploiting British atrocities in these camps, for the public are getting to know the

THE AUSTRALIAN VAUDEVILLE COMPANY.

It is rarely found that a variety Company has a second change of programme as good as their opening number, but it is so with the troupe under notice. A large house attended on Saturday, night, and thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment provided:

The honours of the evening were divided between Professor Davis in his conjuring turn, and Miss. Meore's little dramatic scene, not forgetting Sam Rowley and Miss Warde Professor Davis fairly amazed his audionce with his card tricks and was equally good in his cabinet act. His hands made fast behind him, he shakes tambourines, takes his coat off and generally performs the impossible, to the delight of the onlookers. Miss Moore showed to advantage as the parson, in a scene from "The Galety Girl. No better piece of acting (in the lighter vein) has been seen in Hongkong, and we should advise Miss Moore to stick to the legitimate and not waste her time in singing Soldiers in the Park. Miss Beatrice Warde was again excellent, her stage presence is so good that the pleasure of hearing her voice is equalled by ! dmiration of the lady. (That's enough | Ed. H.K.T.) Mr. S. Rowley and Miss | Aug. 4, Kongbeng, German str., for Swatow Verne were as good as usual and all contributed Aug. 4, Taising, British str., for Canton, Elica. to a very enjoyable evening. The programme Aug. 4, Jacob Diedericksen, German Malin will be repeated this evening.

ARRIVAL OF H.M.S. GLORY.

The flagship Glory arrived safely yesterday afternoon with Admiral. Sir Cyprian Bridge in command. The Glory has not been ashore, she has not participated in any international dispute and, barring the fact of the men on board not getting enough to cat carved out to them, (vide Navy League) everything seems quiet. The Naval Yard (visited this morning, bursting with a thirst for information) was drawn blank and nothing regarding the movements of the Eclipse, Duphne and Pigmy could be elicited. One of these days the Naval authorities will do something the outside publie can understand if they are not careful. Admiral Sir Cyprian Bridge was to have landed this morning and a guard of honour attended at Murray pier at 10 a.m. It was composed of about 50 of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers with druin and fife, brass band and goat. They marched back to Barracks, however, without the Admiral, he not having come

THE MALARIAL MOSQUITO.

In his report on mosquitoes examined by him during the second quarter of 1901, Dr. Thompson says:—

12,760 insects were sent to me, of which 12,539 proved to be mosquitoes of the two genera named. 342, i.e. 2.7 per cent, were found to be Anopheles, of three species, and 12,197, i.e., 97.3 per cent, Culex, of ten species. I reserve all consideration of the nomenclature and description of the different species for a general report on the subject of the mosquitoes of Hongkong, which I propose to submit after my next quarterly statistical report, when my enquiry will have extended over a period

Everybody conversant with the anarchical condition of affairs that has prevailed in the Sultanate of Brunei for some years past, and the utter incompetence of its ruler, will agree, says the Straits Times, that the Order in Council dealing with the administration of justice in that locality has not come any too soon. As luck would have it, however, the Sultanate-which once ruled almost all the lands from Borneo to the Philippines-has now only a few narrow shreds of territory left wherein justice-British or otherwise-may be administered. Neighbours have absorbed all

OPIUM IN CHINA

In his report on the trade of Swatow, the British Consul gives some information respecting the production and consumption of opium in China. He say that the opium returns during the past ten years are interesting, and year by year, until recently, the amount imported would appear to be decreasing. Not that the Chinese have ceased using the drug; opiumsmoking is just as 'common as ever among all classes of the people, but the high price of the pure Indian manufacture compels the native to resort to the cheaper products of local growth. Under present conditions the trade is only being displaced, and whatever is lost to the Indian ryot is gained by his Chinese competitor. At the same time, there is no doubt that the Chinese in Yunnan and Szechuan have succeeded in placing on the market opium of a quality which bids fair in time to oust the foreign import from the China market. The total amount of opium in 1900 falls below the import of 1899 by some 350 chests, but it compares favourably with the returns during the preceding years, though largely under that of 1 1891-a record year, however, in the history of the trade of the port. Malwa and Patna opium are most affected by smokers. Malwa generally in preference; but in several years when this drug commanded a higher price than ordinary, smokers took to Patna. Of Benares manufac-. ture the annual import ranges from 400 to 500 chests. The only other foreign opium passing through the customs is Persian, but the amount from year to year is subject to extreme fluctuations; in 1892 as many as 273 chests were imported, in 1900 only 11 chests entered Swatow. As regards the production of native opium, beyond occasional fields, no systematic cultivation of the poppy plant is carried on in Swatow and surrounding districts. But towards the north, in the hilly country adjoining the Fokien province, Chinese farmers find such a crop profitable, year by year shifting their fields so as to avoid notice and attention from their officials. At most, local production does not exceed a few hundred chests annually. But all this local production goes to adulterate the Indian drug; after the latter has passed up country into the hands of the native dealers, none is exported. The native opium which commands the market all over the South of China is grown in Szechuan. The retail price of prepared opium in the public smoking divans averages 1 oz. of native opium equal 1s., and 1 oz. of Indian opium equal 2s. In 1900 the exports from Swatow amounted in value to £1,918,040, against £2,124,111 in 1899.
